Adeste fideles,
Laeti triumphantes,
Venite, venite in Bethlehem,
Natum videte regem angelorum;
Venite, adoremus Dominum.

Deum de deo,
Lumen de lumine,
Gestant puellae viscera,
Deum verum, genitum, non factum;
Venite, adoremus dominum.

Cantet nunc [io] chorus angelorum,
Cantet aula celestium,
"Gloria in excelsis deo!"

Ergo qui natus die hodierna,
Jesu, tibi sit gloria!
Patris aeterni verbum caro factum;
Venite, adoremus dominum.

O come, all ye faithful,
Joyful and triumphant,
Come, come to Bethlehem,
To see the king of angels born;
Come, let us adore the Lord.

God of God,
Light of light,
Born of a virgin's womb,
True God, begotten, not made;
Come, let us adore the Lord.

Now the choir of angels sings,
The court of heaven sings,
"Glory to God in the highest!"

Therefore to the one born on this day,
Jesus, glory be to thee!
The Father's eternal word, made flesh;
Come, let us adore the Lord.

The words of the four carol verses given above are attributed to John Francis Wade (1711-86), and all the earliest manuscripts of the poem are in his hand, but the words have also been ascribed to King John IV of Portugal (1604-1656) and to various orders of monks.

The literal translation above is by the composer and may be used freely.
